TODAY is a special day because `tuxmachines.org` was registered exactly 18 years ago. We recently renewed this domain's registration for 5 more years (i.e. until middle of 2027) as we certainly expect the site to go on and on for a long time to come.

As people who do technology for a living, with a focus on Free software in particular, running this site is also an educational experience. It helps keep track of what's happening (e.g. new releases, security patches) and if other people find our news picks useful, it motivates us to keep it updated 24/7 every day of the year. We of course receive a lot of help from submitters who themselves produce original works (articles). A personal word of gratitude to all and an outlook (as video):

tuxmachines.org is a very busy news hub. Before Alexa.com was shut down (and before we shunned Phoronix [4]) Alexa said that tuxmachines.org was the biggest source of traffic to Phoronix. ?
